Dear colleagues, respected employers of Kiev and Ukraine,

As employers who have a negative experience of the war in their country and the consequences it leaves firstly on the health and lives of people, but also on economic flows, we sincerely express our solidarity and compassion with you.

We sincerely hope that reason will prevail, and that peace will soon prevail in your country and the whole world. Peace that will enable all of us who are engaged in business to work undisturbed, employ and create new value for our countries, but also for the whole world.

We want that in peace and freedom, the employers of Ukraine, Bosnia and Herzegovina and the whole world work and cooperate for the benefit of each individual and the whole community.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
